

SPECIAL GUEST SPEAKER

James R. Fitzgerald

Class of 1975

Retired FBI Supervisory Special Agent James R. Fitzgerald (criminal profiler/forensic linguist) will share his experiences during an on-campus lecture, open to the public.

Fitzgerald was an investigator/profiler in many important and well-publicized cases. He served as technical adviser for CBS-TV's Criminal Minds and executive producer on A&E's Killer Profile; his real-life character was portrayed by actor Sam Worthington in Discovery Channel's Manhunt: Unabomber, in which he was a consulting producer. Fitzgerald is also co-host of the new TV show Notorious, premiering on the Reelz Network this month. He is the author of a three-part (so far) memoir series titled A Journey to the Center of the Mind.

Scan the QR Code to pre-register!

MARCH 19, 2019
6:00 PM
112 WOODLAND

A reception with book sale and signing in the Woodland Building lobby will follow the presentation.

PennState
Abington